SAFE HARBOR STATEMENT: This presentation release includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, which are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as amended. Words or phrases such as, “may,” “should,” “expects,” “could,” “intends,” “plans,” “anticipates,” “estimates,” “believes,” “predicts” or other similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements, which include, without limitation, earnings forecasts, statements relating to our business strategy and statements of expectations, beliefs, future plans and strategies and anticipated developments concerning our industry, business, operations and financial performance and condition.

The forward-looking statements included in this presentation release are based on our current expectations, projections, estimates and assumptions. These statements are only predictions, not guarantees. Such forward-looking statements are subject to numerous risks and uncertainties that are difficult to predict. These risks and uncertainties may cause actual results to differ materially from what is forecast in such forward-looking statements, and include, without limitation, the following: a portion of our bookings may not lead to completed sales, and our ability to convert bookings into revenues at acceptable profit margins; changes in the global financial markets and the availability of capital and the potential for unexpected cancellations or delays of customer orders in our reported backlog; our dependence on our customers’ ability to make required capital investment and maintenance expenditures; risks associated with cost overruns on fixed-fee projects and in taking customer orders for large complex custom engineered products; the substantial dependence of our sales on the success of the oil and gas, chemical, power generation and water management industries; the adverse impact of volatile raw materials prices on our products and operating margins; economic, political and other risks associated with our international operations, including military actions or trade embargoes that could affect customer markets, particularly Middle Eastern markets and global oil and gas producers, and non-compliance with U.S. export/re-export control, foreign corrupt practice laws, economic sanctions and import laws and regulations; our exposure to fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates, particularly in hyperinflationary countries such as Venezuela; our furnishing of products and services to nuclear power plant facilities; potential adverse consequences resulting from litigation to which we are a party, such as litigation involving asbestos-containing material claims; a foreign government investigation regarding our participation in the United Nations Oil-for-Food Program; expectations regarding acquisitions and the integration of acquired businesses; our foreign subsidiaries autonomously conducting limited business operations and sales in certain countries identified by the U.S. State Department as state sponsors of terrorism; our relative geographical profitability and its impact on our utilization of deferred tax assets, including foreign tax credits; the potential adverse impact of an impairment in the carrying value of goodwill or other intangible assets; our dependence upon third-party suppliers whose failure to perform timely could adversely affect our business operations; the highly competitive nature of the markets in which we operate; environmental compliance costs and liabilities; potential work stoppages and other labor matters; our inability to protect our intellectual property in the U.S., as well as in foreign countries; obligations under our defined benefit pension plans; and other factors described from time to time in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

All forward-looking statements included in this presentation release are based on information available to us on the date hereof, and we assume no obligation to update any forward-looking statement.
Successful Repositioning Through Cycle

- We responded quickly to the challenges of the financial crisis and cyclical downturn and are well positioned to profitably grow
  - Managed costs and margins with successful completion of realignment program, operational excellence and disciplined project pursuit
  - Shifted manufacturing capacity, aftermarket initiatives and people to growing emerging markets
  - Strategic localization investments in building out our QRC network and supporting our customers around the world delivered our strongest aftermarket quarter in Q3 2011

- We see continued growth in emerging markets and improved environment in North America
  - Long cycle bid selectivity has stabilized margins in backlog and we expect improvement going forward
  - Short cycle business volumes improved in oil and gas, chemical and general industries markets, pricing followed

- Large backlog, realigned platform, increased aftermarket, global presence and broad product capabilities have us well positioned for 2012 and beyond
Additional Key Operating Milestones for 2011

* Total shareholder return through 1/27/2012

Superior shareholder returns as Flowserve has continued to execute on its long term end user strategy
Macro-economic and Geopolitical Drivers

• The outlook for growth in global GDP remains weak in 2012

• Regional GDP growth rates can be largely influenced by political leadership changes
  – In 2012 alone, Presidential or Parliamentary elections will be held in 19 countries that collectively represent 48% of the Global GDP

• Major global central banks will be pursuing easier monetary policy conditions for the first time since the financial crisis

*EU-15 refers to states that joined the European Union before 2004.
Other advanced economies include Canada, Switzerland, Norway, Israel, Iceland, Cyprus, Korea, Australia, Taiwan Province of China, Hong Kong, Singapore, New Zealand and Malta.
CIS is Commonwealth of Independent States which includes all former republics of the Soviet Union, excluding the Baltic states.

A modest recovery, buoyed by emerging markets, is expected in 2012
Growth of Primary Energy Demand

- Total global energy demand about 30% higher in 2040
- For both oil and gas, an increasing supply will be from unconventional resources
- Positive outlook in renewables and nuclear power

Source: ExxonMobil: 2012 The Outlook for Energy: A View to 2040

As energy infrastructure develops over time, Flowserve is well positioned to serve the various segments.
Regional Drivers

- Rapid GDP and energy demand growth in emerging markets drives new infrastructure build.

- Competitive pressures and aging infrastructure call for capacity upgrades and conversions in mature OECD countries.

The growth of energy demand in emerging economies presents the greatest opportunity for Flowserve.
Now let’s look at the market:

The Total Available Market by product type:

- Valves - $60B
- Pumps - $55B
- Seals - $5B

Total 2011 Market = ~$120 Billion

Source: European Industrial Forecast

- Valve and pump markets are highly fragmented
- Flowserve and its major competitors representing roughly 15% of the total market
- Seals is more concentrated, with Flowserve and two competitors representing approximately 65%-70% of total market
Investing to optimize our manufacturing and customer support capabilities

Investments for Growth

• Manufacturing & Test Capacity – China, India & Brazil
  • Localize to support growing regional business and increased local content requirements

\(^1\) CAGR and margin improvement represent 2006 – LTM Q3-2011
Targeting Acquisitions with Key Strategic Fit

Acquisition strategy focused on product gaps and companies specializing in highly engineered systems and applications allowing for quick access to key markets

- Recent acquisitions at favorable multiples have been relationship driven and not pursued through an auction process
- Targeted acquisitions are designed to be quickly accretive and meet Internal Rate of Return (IRR) targets

Targeting companies in growth markets which complement our core products and capabilities

- Strong Brand Recognition and Market Reputation
- Highly Engineered Technology
- Underserved Aftermarket Opportunity
- Product Pull-through Opportunities
- Emerging Market Penetration
- Opportunities to Leverage Flowserve’s Existing Global Sales Force

Disciplined approach to evaluating shareholder value creating opportunities
Commitment to Returning Cash to Shareholders

Share Repurchases

- Completed two share repurchase programs within the past 5 years
- Authorized new $300M plan in September 2011
- Completed $109M of share repurchases in Q4 2011
- Board authorized replenishment of capacity back to $300M in December 2011

Dividend

- Increased dividend in Q1 of each year since 2007

Committed to returning between 40% and 50% of two-year average net earnings to shareholders annually
• 2015 revenue target of $6.5 to $7.0 billion provided at last year’s Analyst Day was based on a 5-year addressable market growth of 6.7% CAGR *

• 2011 – 2016 addressable market growth rate has been revised down to 5.9% CAGR due in large part to the European sovereign debt crisis slowing growth and capital investment in 2012

• Flowserve’s end user strategy and investments in emerging markets drive the organic growth rate of 6.5% to 7.0%, above that of the addressable market growth rate of 5.9%

1. Similar to 2011, 2012 earnings will be second half weighted. First half margins will be further impacted by remaining roll off of past due backlog in Q1 and Q2
2. Does not assume impact of potential attractive acquisitions which may arise
3. Negative currency effects of approximately $0.50 when compared to average 2011 exchange rates due to strengthening dollar
4. Financial policy to return 40 - 50% of 2 year average of net earnings to shareholders on an annual basis
